JOSEPH F. MCKINSTRY
HAS DISAPPEAREDLeft the City Last Saturday
Evening.Family and Friends Are Deeply Grieved—Efforts Being Made to Locate McKinstry.

Last Saturday evening, Joseph F. McKinstry, of east Center street, called at the Cadillac garage on south Main street, asked for his auto and drove away. He has not been seen or heard from since and his family and close friends are greatly agitated because of his sudden disappearance. Members of his family are unable to account for his strange action and are deeply grieved because of his absence.

No one knows what motive prompted Mr. McKinstry to leave the city without announcing his destination. His friends and relatives have been making every effort to secure some information as to his whereabouts but their attempts have been unsuccessful. They refuse to believe that he has been the victim of foul play. Up to last October McKinstry was connected with what is now the Butter-Krueger bakery on east Center street. At that time he sold his interest in the establishment. At different times since leaving the bakery he has been employed at the Cadillac garage where he kept his car.

Mrs. McKinstry believes that her husband is in Indiana as he had been contemplating going to that state for some time.

The members of Rev. C. E. Buerkle's Sunday school class surprised him at his home on south Prospect street last evening to extend to him their regrets at his departure from the city. Conversation and social pastimes featured the evening and during its course refreshments were served. Before departing the guests presented their teacher with a set of plates hand-decorated in dainty designs.

The members of the Aid society of the German M. E. church gave Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Buerkle a farewell yesterday afternoon at the church on south Prospect street. Rev. Buerkle has accepted a position at Allegheny, Pa., and will leave soon to take up his duties in that city. The society formally expressed its regrets at the departure of their pastor and as a memento of its esteem presented him with several handsome pieces of cut glass. Following several informal talks refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held in one month.

Judge Kinkaid Speaks

Columbus, Sept. 7.—Judge R. E. Kinkaid before whom Rodney J. Diegle was found guilty of having acted as a go-between in legislative bribery cases and today that he would probably pass sentence on Diegle tomorrow morning. Diegle, according to information received here, is at his home in Sandusky, and is expected to come to Columbus today or tomorrow.

Judge Kinkaid will issue a capias for him.

MARRIAGE OF MISS PAUL DILSEVER AND MR. M. C. CLEMENT CELEBRATED.

The marriage of Miss Ocle Dilsever and Mr. M. C. Clement was celebrated Tuesday evening by Rev. G. R. Pedgley, pastor of the Christian church at Richwood.

Mrs. Clement is an estimable young woman with many friends in the city in which she lives. She has been employed as a typewriter in Mrs. C. W. Rogers' millinery shop. Mr. Clement has been cashier for many years in the LaRue bank. They will make their home in LaRue.

Miss Edna Grace Hurr and Mr. William M. Rush were united in married last evening at the residence of

Rev. F. E. Zechel on South Prospect

street. They were unattended.

Mrs. Rush is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hurr of the Children's home and is popular with many friends. Mr. Rush is a prominent young farmer near Martel. They will reside on a farm near Martel.

An attractive centerpiece of scarlet salvia garnished with green leaves adorned the table center. The dinner was served in course fashion

and was complete in its appointments.

Covers were placed for Miss Mattie

Meredith, Messrs. Walter Reckfeld,

Charles Antes, Jesse Dowler, Harvey

Martin, Edward Parrish, Samuel

Cressap, Frank Philbrick, Garfield

Trivett and the host and hostess.

Following the dinner a musical hour was enjoyed.

Special Cotton Report.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The census bureau in a special cotton report issued today estimated that 771,413

bales had been ginned out of the cotton growth of 1911 up to and including Sept. 1, compared with 553,011

for 1910; 388,242 for 1909, and 402,

229 for 1908. Round bales included

this year are 6,994 compared with 10,

874 for 1910; 11,587 for 1909 and 20,

962 for 1908.

Captured His Man.

Norwalk, O., Sept. 8.—With his air gun eight year old Birdette Wood yesterday pursued and caught the arrest of Casper Strawmeyer, 40, whom he found in his home on his return from school. The boy discovered the man hidden behind a door and securing his toy air gun pursued Strawmeyer, who took refuge in a barn. The police were notified and the man captured.

Food Riots in Belgium.

Brussels, Sept. 8.—With bitter quoted at $1.50 per pound and other necessities costing proportionately, food riots continued throughout Belgium today. So serious has become this problem that the high cost of living, that butchers and grocers have armed themselves to protect their property against the thousands of women who are storming the market places and looting right and left. The most serious disorder is reported from Ostend.

The trials of the five men who were arrested last Monday on affidavits, filed by dry detectives who have been at work in the city, charging them with violating the local option laws, have been postponed by a mutual agreement between the city solicitor and their attorneys. The trials are now scheduled as follows:

David Waham and John Walsh, first case, Monday morning at nine o'clock; Charles Miller, Monday afternoon at one o'clock; John Ruck, Tuesday afternoon; Michael J. Burk, Wednesday morning at nine o'clock; Washam and Walsh, second case, Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock.

As usual, there is much speculation concerning the sincerity of the work of the dry detectives. Some are inclined to believe that it is the old story of filing affidavits and having the trials postponed until an agreement is reached between the alleged bootleggers and the detectives, thereby they will be paid a certain sum of money to not appear as prosecuting witnesses.

Whatever the game may be, the detectives are not in the city at the present time, but have promised to return Monday.

Charged With Murder.

Jackson, Mich., Sept. 8.—Dr. J. F. Gudman today was charged with murder following an analysis of the contents of his dead wife's stomach which showed evidence of cocaine of poison.

When arrested yesterday pending the examination, the police say a vial of the poison was found on Gudman. Mrs. Gudman was found dead in bed yesterday after her husband had left the house. Gudman and his wife are alleged to have quarreled almost incessantly since about a month ago when the dead woman had her husband arrested charged with kidnapping her.

Gudman pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to 30 days in jail but appealed the case.

Sentenced to Hang.

Georgetown, Tex., Sept. 8.—International complications are feared if Leon Martinez, the 17-year-old Mexican youth, who murdered 18-year-old Emma Brown, is hanged.

Mexican Consul General is making every effort to save his countryman's life and Gov. Clegg has granted a 30-day stay. The lad was sentenced to hang Sept. 10.

Smart Sucker.

Uppit, Sandusky, O., Sept. 8.—James Brower, sr., who recently visited his son James Brower, jr., confined in the state penitentiary, reports that his son is employed as a prison barber and recently shaved 65 prisoners in 125 minutes, shaving one of them in thirty seconds. He broke all prison records.

BERRINGER PIKE

BONDS ARE SOLD

Cleveland Firm Pays Nice Premium

For Securities.

Bonds in the sum of $23,500 to pay

the cost of constructing the Berringer

pike in Richland township, were sold at noon today at the office of Prosecutor Charles E. Justice. The Tillot-

son & Wolcott company of Cleveland

were the successful bidders, paying par and accrued interest and a premium of $1,235.50, which by the way,

is a little the highest price that has been paid for a road bond for some time. The New First National Bank

of Columbus bid par, accrued interest

and a premium of 77.

Carried by Machine.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 8.—More complete returns today show that the senatorial primary was a sweeping victory for the Virginia "machine,"

which backed Martin and Swanson.

Almost every congressional district

was carried and the majorities of Martin and Swanson will range between 36,000 and 55,000. Representatives

Jones and Glass carried only a few scattered counties outside their congressional districts.

A Ship on Fire.

New York, Sept. 8.—Fire was discovered today in the hold of the U. S. transport Hancock at the Brooklyn navy yard. Two hundred sailors were sent at work unloading the coal from the bunkers as the fire was under the coal. The vessel has a large amount of ammunition and other explosives

on board.

Her Mother Sorry.

Leadville, Colo., Sept. 8.—"You'll

be sorry for this," said Ruby Musgrave, 16, to her mother when the latter chided her for failure to secure promotion at school. A moment

later the girl blew out her brains.

Captured His Man.
